

EDHEC Becomes Exclusive Official CAIA<sup>SM</sup> Association Course Provider

EDHEC Business School has entered into a landmark agreement with the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association<sup>SM</sup> and become its exclusive official provider of CAIA<sup>SM</sup> exam preparatory courses for Europe.

Founded in 2002 with support from AIMA and CISDM, the CAIA Association<sup>SM</sup> sponsors the CAIA<sup>SM</sup> designation, the global professional certification that is quickly becoming the hallmark of excellence in the alternative investment industry.

Certifying mastery of the concepts, tools and practices essential for understanding, selecting and managing investments in the alternative space, the CAIA<sup>SM</sup> programme appeals to investment advisors, consultants and analysts, fund managers and administrators, accountants, lawyers, as well as compliance and back office personnel.

Coming from over 30 countries, CAIA<sup>SM</sup> candidates include seasoned alternative investment professionals, asset management generalists, and new industry participants.

EDHEC provides candidates with a range of study solutions allowing them to take the two levels of the challenging CAIA<sup>SM</sup> examinations with the best chance of success.

EDHEC Business School preparatory products for the February 2005 CAIA<sup>SM</sup> examinations include intensive on-site review seminars, on-line training courses and test preparation software. EDHEC also offers customised courses for institutional clients.

For further information, contact: Frédéric Ducoulombier.